BEAT THE GAS PRICE BLUES
Enter to win a 60 mpg Vespa

LAKEWOOD, CO (June 7, 2006)—If gas prices are consuming your budget, a solution may be within reach. Erico Motorsports in conjunction with Whole Foods Market at Belmar, is giving away a Vespa LX50 that is currently on display at Whole Foods Market.

A typical Vespa gets 60 miles per gallon and costs only $4 per tank of gas. You can legally park it on the sidewalk and it has ample storage space for groceries.

Never tried one? On Sunday, June 18, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Erico Motorsports will offer “demo” rides at the intersection of Saulsbury and Alaska Streets at The Market at Belmar (Wadsworth and Alameda). To register to win, visit www.ericomotorsports.com.

The winner will be announced at The Market at Belmar at noon on Sunday, June 25 at the Chef Demonstration Tent on West Alaska Drive. For more information visit Whole Foods Market at Belmar or www.ericomotorsports.com.
